Together, Let Us Praise

JESUS AND MARY

In her letter of October 12, Sr. France Bergeron tells us that in going through the 175th issue of Le Royaume we would have a good idea of the great ceremonies that took place at Lac-Étchemin in honor of the Triumph of the Cross.

And, in effect, beginning with Father Maurice Pélouquin's article, "God of Love and Light", followed by Sylvie Payeur-Raynauld's interesting commentary, we are given a marvelous perception of the "Days of Prayer" of September 10-11 and 17-18, 2005....

Then there was the announcement of "the dark period for the Church and the world," transmitted to us by Sister Jeanne d'Arc Demers, when Marie-Paule was taken by an "outpouring of light and love" of celestial savor....

As for Father Pierre Mastropietro, he brought out the truth regarding the accusations made against the Army of Mary.

The whole of the articles of the issue no. 175 of Le

Royaume forms a rainbow of light and love.

The highlight is Marie-Paule's reflection on the current state of things: "If the world is floundering in darkness, Heaven is projecting a beam of light and protecting its Work, as has always been the case, for 'God circumvents the obstacles raised by men'."

In a month I will be 98 and beginning my 99th year. Let us, together, thank the dear God who grants us a happy old age....

Longevity is a gift of Heaven... God be blest for it!

With all my heart I bless you.
